Invitation to Private Viewing

The British Library has kindly offered to arrange a private viewing for IMCoS members of the new 1986 exhibition 'The city in maps'.

This will be on the evening of the opening day, Wednesday 4 June, between 6 and 8 pm, in the King's Library. The evening will comprise reception, buffet, and access to the Map Gallery for viewing throughout. The curators responsible for mounting the exhibition will be on hand to discuss the plans and maps exhibited.

The Library has also extended an invitation to the British Cartographic Society, which will provide a good opportunity to get together with a fellow society.

Applications should be made as soon as possible, together with a remittance of £5 per person, to help cover the cost of the buffet, drinks and administration.
